Lease and occupancy analysis

As of 2026-08-31: 9 active, 1 vacant (Suite 010). All active suites expire 2029-08-31; no near-term rollover within 12 months.

Suite 001 executed lease base rent $6,650/month; a signed amendment effective 2026-08-01 increases monthly rent by $350. Per instructions, stabilized underwriting GPR remains based on pre-amendment scheduled rents across all suites; the amendment affects only in-place rent for historical vs. current comparison.

No free rent concessions as of evaluation; pending occupants, if any, have not taken possession and are excluded from physical occupancy.

Risks and diligence gaps

Pending counted as occupied in manager headline; physical occupancy excludes pending. Risk: pending included in occupancy — Present.

Near-term rollover within 12 months — Absent (all expirations 2029).

Insurance policy limit present: $2,000,000 aggregate; insurance documentation present. Risk: missing insurance — Absent.

Capital item treatment in opex: roof replacement explicitly noted as capital, not in recurring repairs. Risk: capital in opex — Absent.

Unsigned rent change proposal does not control; only signed amendment is effective. Risk: unsigned rent change — Present (packet mentions an unsigned proposal but clarifies it does not change agreement).

Temporary free rent — Absent per lease excerpt.

Sizing floor binding: note 6.50% vs floor 6.00% — Floor not binding; risk — Absent.

Refinance shortfall risk relative to payoff and sized proceeds: Net cash out positive; risk — Absent.

Risk	Assessment	Note
Pending in occupancy	Present	Manager headline includes pending
Near-term rollover	Absent	All expirations 2029-08-31
Missing insurance	Absent	Policy declaration provided
Capital in opex	Absent	Roof replacement treated as capital
Unsigned rent change	Present	Unsigned proposal noted but not effective
Temporary free rent	Absent	None as of evaluation date
Sizing floor binding	Absent	Note 6.50% > 6.00% floor
Refinance shortfall	Absent	Net cash out ~$694k

Source notes

Certified rent roll as of 2026-08-31 drives occupancy, unit mix, areas, and scheduled rents.

Archive roll 2026-06-30 corroborates rent step increases relative to amendment timing.

Operating statement (T12 ending 2026-08-31) provides taxes, insurance, other opex, and reported NOI; note distinguishes capital improvement.

Insurance record provides $2,000,000 aggregate liability limit and policy dates.

Lease 001 excerpt confirms base rent, area, expiration, and lack of concessions; correspondence confirms signed amendment +$350/mo effective 8/1/2026.

Underwriting instructions dictate stabilized rent basis, economic loss, other income, cap rate, sizing rules, fees, and payoff.
